BILL STATUS: As Introduced

FEDERAL

IMPACT: State

Summary of Legislation: This bill provides that the Bureau of Motor Vehicles (BMV) may not suspend a person's driving privileges for being a habitual violator of traffic laws unless the BMV mails a notice concerning the suspension to the person not more than two years after the date the person accumulated the most recent judgment that made the person a habitual violator.

Effective Date: July 1, 2013.

Explanation of State Expenditures: This bill prohibits the BMV from suspending the driving privileges of a habitual traffic offender unless the most recent judgment making that person a habitual offender occurred within the previous two years. This bill could decrease notifications the BMV makes to habitual traffic offenders whose last offense occurred more than two years ago. As a result, this bill could decrease BMV expenditures for printing and mailing such notices. Any decrease in expenditures is expected to be negligible.
